Philip Morris International Records Management Program

Dear Ms. Fitzsimons:

The first step in Philip Morris International's effort to revise and improve its Records Management Program began at a meeting in New York on Thursday, February 22, 1990. At that meeting, our firm, outside counsel to the Company, distributed questionnaires for your completion.

As you will recall, March 16 was set as the due date for return of questionnaires. Inasmuch as we wish to proceed on schedule with this important project, Bradley Brooks has asked me to write to you to remind you that we have not received questionnaires from the following individuals or departments: (1) Sharon A. Fitzsimons; (2) Alain D. Golay; (3) F. Koepke; (4) V. Charles; (5) E. Cermack; and (6) E. Bruehert.

We would appreciate your immediate attention to the task of completing the questionnaires and their return to me at the Raleigh address of Hunton & Williams by Friday, May 18, 1990. If you have difficulty in meeting this new deadline, please call me (919-899-3061).

I shall be glad to answer any questions or to help expedite the return of the questionnaires in any way possible.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur J. DeBaugh
